

UNICO Cork, 26 - 28 May 2004

Wednesday, 26 May, 2004

- Dinner/Overnight Accommodation at Rochestown Park Hotel, Cork

Thursday, 27 May, 2004

- MASTERCLASSES
 - Research Contracting - its relationship to IP Commercialisation, IP Ownership & university discussions with CBI led by Catherine Quinn, University of Oxford Research Services & David Secher, University of Cambridge Research Services Division running parallel with
 - Organising and growing a TT Office
led by Douglas Robertson, University of Newcastle Technology Transfer Office
- Lunch
- MAIN CONFERENCE SESSIONS
 - Welcome from Professor J K Collins, Vice President for Research Policy and Support, University College Cork
 - Technology Transfer at University College Cork
Tony Weaver, University College Cork
 - Wealth from Knowledge
Norman Price, Deputy Chairman, Advantage West Midlands
 - Knowledge Transfer & State-funded Research in South Africa
Richard Doyle, Innovation Fund Commercialisation Office
 - Patenting computer-implemented inventions; the EU proposal and the impact on spin-outs
Tim Frain, Nokia
 - Spin-outs and taxation
Tony Raven, Southampton University CEI
 - UNICO AGM - Full Members Only
- CONFERENCE DINNER & TRADITIONAL IRISH SHINDIG at Midleton Distillery
- Overnight Accommodation at Rochestown Park Hotel, Cork

Friday, 28 May, 2004

- Training - an overview of 2 academic courses
Ruth Soetendorp, Bournemouth University and Eamonn Murphy, University of Limerick
- Knowledge Transfer and Commercialisation - what's the difference?
Kevin Cullen, University of Glasgow Research & Enterprise
- First Results of 2003 UNICO Survey
Tom Hockaday, Isis Innovation Ltd, University of Oxford
- Addressing Health Inequities through Creative Management of Intellectual Property
Cathy Garner, MIHR
- BioScience and Innovation Growth
James Dobree, Head of Biotechnology Sector DTI
- Panel Discussion: Director and Officer Insurance issues in spin-outs

- Conference closes at 1.00 pm